MultiLab®

Laboratory bench solutions

Using a specialised Compact Laminate, MultiLab® is the perfect solution for laboratory benches. Its exceptional finish is resistant to water, most chemicals, stains, impact and heat (up to 180c), making it ideal for laboratory and commercial use.

Resco offers two laboratory bench options. Check our performance Data Sheets (which include comprehensive testing results) and speak to our team to ensure the right choice for your particular application.

BioLab

Using a specialised Compact Laminate, Resco's BioLab is the perfect solution for medium grade laboratories. It's exceptional finish is resistant to chemicals, water, stains, impact and heat (up to 180c), making it ideal for laboratory and commercial use.

ChemLab

Resco's ChemLab is the ultimate laboratory benchtop for high chemical use. The Electron Beam Cured (EBC) surface, gives it an extra stain resistance and high hygiene, making it the only choice for demanding laboratory environments.
